RED WINE

FRANCE

Bourgogne

By Bottle

- Domaine du Clos Frantin, Gevrey Chambertin, Côte de Nuits, 2018 Rs 7,900 € 161
Deriving from a Pinot Noir grape variety, it releases aromas of red and black fruits on a woody note. Rich and velvety, it is a structured and well balanced wine.
- Pommard "Clos des Ursulines" Monopole Albert Bichot, 2018 Rs 7,500 € 153
This wine reveals a fruity nose redolent of cherry, blackcurrant and fig. Full and round on the palate with ripe tannins and rich, but not heavy, substance. This wine is powerful and well-structured yet remains subtle, elegant and almost "feminine" due to the vineyard's proximity to Volnay. The finish is silky and velvety.
- Maison Latour, Nuits-Saint-Georges, Côte de Nuits, 2018 Rs 9,500 € 194
This deeply red colored wine offers aromas of cherries, truffles and spices and is from the Pinot Noir grape family. Subtle oak flavours on the palate, it is medium bodied and admirably long on the finish.

Vallée du Rhône

- Domaine M. Chapoutier Chateauneuf du Pape, 2017 Rs 5,800 € 118
Mainly made with Grenache, the complex aromas of very ripe red fruits are felt on the nose. There is a lot of intensity and power with hints of spices and leather on the palate.
- Maison Brotte, Domaine de Barville, Chateauneuf du Pape, 2016 Rs 5,800 € 118
This powerful and silky wine made from Grenache, Syrah and Mourvèdre grapes has a ruby color. On the nose, a spicy, truffle and fruity character stands out. It is elegant and well balanced with a lingering note of red fruits on the palate.
- Domaine E. Guigal, Côte-Rôtie « Brune et Blonde », 2018 Rs 10,800 € 220
The grape variety of this wine is Syrah and Viognier. It has a dark ruby red color and aromas of red berries, spices and delicate oak exude from the glass. On the palate, its tannins are round and melted with flavors of red fruits and vanilla.

Bordeaux

- Château Saint Georges, Saint-Emilion, 2016, Rs 5,400 € 110
This wine comes from the grape variety of Merlot, Cabernet Sauvignon and Cabernet Franc. It subtly releases aromas of red fruits and a slight floral note and offers this velvety, balanced side, with fine and elegant tannins on the palate.
- Château Grand-Puy Ducasse - 5^{ème} Cru Classé, Pauillac, 2011 Rs 6,800 € 139
Coming from the Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot grape family, it has a dense ruby/purple color which offers red and black fruits, spices, good acidity and ripe tannins. Medium-bodied, rich and textured on the palate, it is an impressive wine.
- Château Angelus N°.3, Saint-Emilion, 2019 Rs 8,800 € 180
This wine is a blend of two grape varieties which are Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot. Its robe is intense black, with aromas of black fruits and touches of cocoa, vanilla and liquorice. On the palate, it is a powerful wine with a good balance between acidity and tannins.
